

PULLEN IN MERCER WINS FIFTH GRAND PRIZE RACE

WINNER ESTABLISHES NEW RECORD OF 77.2 MILES PER HOUR

Is First Time in History of International Event That an American Car Has Won First Honors—Winner Gains Place by Serious Accident Which Befalls J. B. Marquis.

Santa Monica, Cal., Feb. 28.—Edwin Pullen in a Mercer, won the fifth International Grand Prize race over 403 miles of the Santa Monica course today. A new record of 77.2 miles per hour was established. It was also the first time in the history of the event that an American car won first honors.

The winner gained his place by a serious accident—the first in the annals of the Santa Monica course—which jeopardized the life of Driver J. B. Marquis, when his car, the most dangerous foreign motor in the contest, turned turtle at a turn and crashed him.

Thereafter it was no race. Pullen was forty miles ahead of the second car at the finish and fifty-five miles ahead of the third.

Ralph DePalma, who won the Vanderbilt cup Thursday was fourth and last because there was no fifth out of all the seventeen starters. Oldfield, his most persistent opponent the other day, was eliminated from the speed test by a bad motor ten laps from the finish.

Pullen covered the 403 miles in five hours, thirteen minutes, setting a new mark of 77.2 miles per hour against the record of 74.45 established by Caleb Bragg, at Savannah in 1911.

Guy Ball was second with an elapsed time of 5:53:23 and a speed of 65.4 miles per hour.

B. Taylor took third place when Guy Anderson's car broke down and lost second place six laps from finish. His time was 6:08:29.

DePalma, who had led the lead for several laps, was declared out of the race on the 35th lap but got back in time to limp over the finish line and claim fourth money.

Takes Turn at High Speed.

Marquis was far out in the lead in the thirty fifth lap when he took a turn at too high speed and the machine skidded and turned over several times. The accident occurred at a turn known as "death curve" although no driver ever has been killed there. The machine, a big English car, stopped rolling and rested on its driver's body. Marquis was picked up badly crushed. It was reported at first that he was fatally injured and he remained unconscious for two hours, but surgeons declared tonight he would recover, although severely hurt.

Pullen won with the same car in which he dashed into an iron barricade Thursday while leading in the Vanderbilt race. He barely escaped a similar mishap today when an old soldier walked out upon the track and forced him to swerve into a curb which ripped off two tires. Pullen managed to rev his wheels and re-enter the race with the loss of but a few minutes.

Teddy Tetzlaff was out of the race early. He, however, made several of the fastest laps in the race, covering several at the rate of 87 miles per hour. Tire troubles, however, and finally the balking of motor and bearings forced him to quit. The wholesale elimination of cars began in the twentieth lap. A pace close to 80 miles an hour apparently was too much for many of them. Pullen began his climb to first place in the thirty fifth lap. Marquis, who held the lead until his accident in the thirty fifth, set the place and Pullen successfully passed Anderson and DePalma. Pullen's prize money was $3,000.

The entrants and order in which they started is as follows: Fiat, Tetzlaff; Mercer, Wishart; Stutz, Anderson; Mercer, Pullen; Mason, Carlson; Alco, Taylor; Mercer, Oldfield; Stutz, Cooper; Mercer, Gordon; Aperson, Good; Mercedes, DePalma; Sunbeam, Marquis; Marmon, Muth; Fiat, Lewis; Marmon, Ball; Fiat, Verbeck; Alco, Janette; Mason, Rich-embacher.

CARRANZA DECLINES TO REPORT TO BRYAN

NO INFORMATION REGARDING BENTON WILL BE GIVEN SECRETARY OF STATE

Constitutionalist Commander Declares Benton Was British Subject and That His Death Should Be Taken Up Through Diplomatic Channels of His Country.

Nogales, Sonora, Mex., Feb. 28.—In two notes to the Washington government issued today, General Carranza declined to supply information to Secretary Bryan regarding the killing at Juarez of William Benton on the ground that Benton was a British subject but gave assurance that he would investigate and report on the disappearance at Juarez of Gustav Bauch, an American citizen. This resulted from urgent requests from the state department at Washington through American Consul Frederic Simplich which have been made at various times during the last three days.

Until this afternoon General Carranza had remained silent regarding his stand upon the request of Secretary Bryan made three days ago for information of Benton's death.

Another message arrived today from Secretary Bryan in which he requested immediate information of the disappearance of Bauch. Carranza's replies were made to both queries at the same time and in the form of documents translated into English.

The stand was taken by the revolutionary leader that the death of Benton, a Briton should be taken up through the diplomatic channels of his country.

General Carranza's reply to Mr. Bryan's request for information of the Bauch case reads as follows:

"I have received through the acting secretary of the department of foreign affairs the telegram which the honorable, the secretary of state, William Jennings Bryan, addressed to you today relative to the Bauch case.

"In reply thereto, I have the honor to inform you that I have today telegraphed to the competent constitutionalist authorities requesting them to report to me at once in detail regarding the facts of the case mentioned in the telegram referred to, and as soon as I shall have positive information to convey to you, I will do so at once."

The text of the more lengthy explanation about the Benton incident reads:

"I have already on other occasions informed you, so that you may communicate it to your government, that in order to enable the executive power under my charge to attend to representations relative to foreigners residing in this country within the territory under the jurisdiction of constitutionalist authorities that such representations must be made by representative authorized by their respective governments and communicated directly to me as supreme chief of the constitutionalist army.

Therefore, in order to be consistent with my policy, as above outlined, I wish to inform you that I shall be only too pleased to consider any representations made in the case of the British subject, William S. Benton, provided, of course, that may be made directly to me by a representative of the British government.

"I wish, however, to call especially to your attention—in order that you may so inform your government—that you're the first direct representation made to me in the Benton case, since all of the representations made in this case so far have been made to authorities of the constitutionalist government, who only have been dealt with, although I am the supreme chief of the constitutionalist army, according to the declaration of Guadalupe of March 26th 1913. And it is therefore only on various occasions that foreign governments or their representatives should address matters of international character."

"Nogales, Sonora, Mex., Feb. 28, 1914."

"The supreme chief of the constitutionalist army."
(Signed) "V. Carranza."

Unarmed When Slain.

Washington, Feb. 28.—(William S. Benton, the British subject slain at Juarez was unarmed and was shot to death in Villa's office, according to information which has reached Washington officials.

While no statement to this effect was forthcoming today, slackening of official interest in the proposed postmortem on Benton's body was evident.

Benton carried no arms when he approached Villa's office in Juarez, according to the information; he spent two hours waiting for the interview that ended in his death, walking back and forth in front of the office building; he was shot through the stomach after he entered the office and received other wounds afterward, although the first was mortal.

The postmortem, it is said, may serve to confirm the character of the wounds, though the probable state of the body in a tropical climate eleven days after death may defeat even this purpose.

This fund represents the proceeds of concessions held by the lady managers of the exposition in the women's and children's buildings.

Mrs. Palmer asserted the fund was set aside for some philanthropic work for women, to be used at her discretion. EARLY ADJOURNMENT OF CONGRESS DOUBTFUL

LEADERS DECLARE TRUST LEGISLATION MUST BE ENACTED

Trust Legislative Program is Far From Completion and Becoming More Complicated—No Report as to All Bills is Likely Before May—Other News of Washington.

Washington, Feb. 28.—With the problem of drafting satisfactory trust legislation becoming more complicated as congressional committees dig more deeply into the subject, early adjournment of congress becomes doubtful. Administration leaders declared today that trust legislation must be enacted in order to carry out the Democratic party's pledge, but it is equally essential, in their opinion to consider the situation so carefully that no mistakes be made.

The trust legislative programme is far from completion and chairman of the house committee in charge of the work in the lower branch cannot see how a report can be agreed upon before May as to all the bills. An inter-state trade bill probably will be reported within a few weeks.

Party leaders agree that the trust question will precipitate long debate in both houses and if some of the proposed measures do not reach either house before May adjournment by June 1st seem unlikely.

All efforts to limit the power of the postmaster general to regulate parcels post rates, zones or weights were defeated.

Two Appropriations Passed.

The legislative machinery in the house was speeded up today, two appropriation bills being passed and the consideration of a third begun. The army appropriation bill carrying $94,214,000 for the support of the military establishment during the next fiscal year went through without material amendment. The military academy bill appropriating $98,744 was called up and was passed in fifteen minutes.

CORNELL STUDENTS RELIEVED OF ALL BLAME FOR DEATH

Students Deputized to Watch for Man Annoying Young Women Are Not Blamed for His Death.

Mount Vernon, Iowa, Feb. 28.—Four Cornell students were relieved by the coroner's jury here this evening of all blame for the death of Howard Manning. A bullet fired by one of the students to frighten Manning, who had been caught peeping into the windows of the girl's dormitory last night, killed him. The four students, Owen Lovett, Homer Trimble, Paul Busenbark and Albert Andra, recently were deputized by town officials to watch for the man who had been annoying the young women students.

Last night the men saw Manning climb a fire-escape on the dormitory. When they appeared he jumped and ran and they followed, shooting in the air as they ran. Manning disappeared in the darkness. A little later Prof. H. A. Mills found him in his back yard, dying.

Manning's mother said tonight her son, who was 25 years old, enlisted in the army a year ago, and deserted and came back home Sept. 1st. She had him hidden in her cellar since that time and he had left his hiding place only at night.

There is no chance that the twin cities will be quarantined. Parents need have no fear about sending back their children."

ELLIS ADMITS CHARGE AGAINST WIFE UNTRUE

RISES FROM WITNESS CHAIR AND SWEARS SHE WAS GOOD WOMAN

Cincinnati Leather Merchant on Trial for Murder Breaks Down Before Prosecutors Cross-Examination and Admits Untruthfulness of Former Charge—Still Asserts His Mind Was Blank.

Chicago, Feb. 28.—Crowing under the severe cross-examination of the prosecutor, William Cheney Ellis, the Cincinnati leather merchant on trial for the murder of his wife, today admitted his charge that his wife was unfaithful was untrue. He arose from the witness chair and with hands clenched above his head swore he believed she was a good woman.

The prosecutor then sought to pry out the details of the crime, but Ellis asserted his mind was a blank at the time of the tragedy.

"Isn't it a fact that when the shot was fired your wife was asleep and you held the revolver a few inches from her head," asked Mr. Malato. "No," she told me I had always been a good husband to her. She said she knew she was doing wrong but couldn't help it. I thought everything good in my life was going from me. I saw my wife and my children vanish as in a vision."

Ellis recoiled in his chair and fell backwards against the wall. He was unconscious for two minutes and during the remainder of the cross-examination kept his eyes closed. The prosecutor renewed his fire of questions and forced the witness to reassert his faith in the woman he killed. It was Ellis' third day on the stand and he completed his testimony late in the afternoon.

Throughout his testimony Ellis never once turned his eyes toward Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hosia, the aged parents of Mrs. Ellis.

Ellis had the appearance of a man who was recovering from an epileptic fit when he was taken to the county jail soon after his arrest. Two jail physicians testified for the defense.

They said that the mind of an epileptic is a blank when he Springfield, 27; Granite City, 32.

Championship honors in the Western Illinois basketball tournament were won last night by Granite City, who defeated Springfield by the close score of 32 to 27. Gripping the ball as if in a death struggle, both teams played forty minutes of the most strenuous basketball ever witnessed on the local floor. Springfield weakening under the heavy strain of the series playing, paved the way for Granite City's victory. The game was a fitting climax to the long list of close contests which had marked the entire tournament. When the teams went to shelter after the first half, the probable winner was as much a mystery as before the game started. The crowd yelled themselves hoarse for their favorite team. Springfield lost enough points to have gone beyond Granite City, by the failure to annex free throws.

Biggest Tournament Yet.
There is not the least doubt but what the tournament was the biggest and most successful ever pulled off in Jacksonville. The crowds were immense and each day and night new seats had to be erected. A thousand people must have witnessed the game last night, there being 462 single paid admissions. The door way leading to the hall was choked with people during the final game. The crowd was orderly and showed respect to all teams, which fact was commented upon several times by the officials of the meet.

Financially a Success.
From the stand point of finances, the management is more than pleased with the receipts and this part was very important as each team received a pro rata of the funds. Too much praise can not be given Principal Collins, members of the faculty, students and friends, who lent a helping hand in making the tournament such a big success. Failure of some teams who were scheduled to come here and backed out in the last moment and the appearance of others who were not expected caused no little trouble, especially in the make up of the schedule and the representative of the schools had many conferences to get the tangle out.

Schedule a Difficult One.
The management regretted very much that on the first day's playing the winner had to lose out altogether as on that day some splendid teams, who would have figured high in honors, were put out of the running. But the schedule was a big one and some process had to be taken which would make an early seeding. Individual praise could be given every man who played on the floor and as to team work some of the most brilliant playing ever witnessed in a tournament was staged.

J. H. S. Deserves Credit.
While Jacksonville was not given a chance to try for the championship honors, the team did remarkably well. When it is taken into consideration that Boxell, the only experienced man on the team was out because of an injury and that the other men were playing their first year, their showing was remarkable. Every man played hard and fast and kept things interesting or their opponents. Coach Buland is to be commended for their fine showing.

Officials Were Good.
While it is hard to get a set of officials who please every one, the work of Messrs. Tenney and Duerr of Decatur was good and as a whole gave satisfaction. There were a few close decisions, which perhaps some would take exception to, but the men are to be commended upon the way they handled the games and their consideration of the people and players.

The serving lunch at the meet by the girls of the Domestic Science department proved a good thing and a neat sum was realized.

Quincy, 24; Granite City, 35.
Quincy fell an easy prey to Granite City, the opening game of the series Saturday, by a score of 24 to 35. Louis starred for Granite City getting seven baskets. Springfield hung it onto Jacksonville in the second game of the morning to the tune of 38 to 13. Springfield early took the lead and maintained it during the entire contest. It was simply a case of the locals being outclassed. The J. H. S. men being unable to withstand the long strain. Coach Buland used a number of second string men in order to stop the slaughter but to no avail. Schneider and English proved the big point winner for the Capital City lads.

Canton and Granite City put up a desperate fight for the coveted honor and the second half was pretty well along before the fans settled down to the fact that Granite City was going to hold the small lead they had. At the end of the first half only two points separated them. Van Sickle of Canton was easily the star of the Canton bunch. Both teams put up some splendid work and the game was one of the most interesting to watch in the day's series.

Fans were thrown into the wildest kind of excitement in the Springfield-Pittsfield game, which went to Springfield. Both quintets went in to win and the score was kept tight until the last 10 minutes of play then it was by the hardest kind of effort that Springfield maintained their standing. Pittsfield is certainly deserving of all the honor that came to them in holding Springfield down. If Springfield had not played so heavily during the day Pittsfield would not have stood much of a chance for fighting them to a standstill. The guarding of both teams at times was phenomenal.

PREPARED FOR LENT

Whether actuated by religious conviction or motives of health, it is a wise dispensation that calls for a period of abstinence from meats.

In days gone, the Lenten season may have been one of real deprivation, but now a wealth of Sea Foods is at our command in forms so varied and appetizing, that a change of diet is as welcome as it is refreshing, healthful, nourishing and rejuvenating.

In economy, too, these abundant foods from Oceans, Lakes, and Rivers afford every good reason for encouragement in reducing cost of living.

To this beautiful choice of FISH FOOD, modern conservative methods have provided:

VEGETABLES as fresh, sweet and succulent as if the garden dew were still upon them—

FRUITS of every luscious kind with their rich, ripe flavors preserved in glass and tin—and CEREALS in a bewildering variety of tasty preparations that upbuild brain, bone and brawn.

With this abundance to choose from, well may one exclaim, Abstinence, where is thy rigor?

O, LENT, where is thy sting?

Let Us Also be Your Druggist.

SUNDAY CLOSED PITTSBURG REVIVAL WITH 25,797 CONVERTS

Total Contributions For Evangelist Were Nearly $45,000—Marvelous Scenes Marked Close of Meetings.

When Billy Sunday closed his Pittsburg revival the total collections for his personal fund amounted to $44,451.52; the professed conversions were 25,797 and the amount raised for expenses and for charities was $39,410. The meetings are said to have been the most marvelous in Sunday's marvelous career.

In introductory paragraphs to the report of the next to the final day's meetings the Pittsburg Dispatch said:

"God's purpose has been fulfilled by 'Billy' Sunday in Pittsburg," thousands of men and a few hundred women shouted in unison as they stood in the Bellefield tabernacle last night at the conclusion of the most dramatic meeting of the entire revival. When 649 converts stood with bowed heads in the front rows, the great evangelist half reclined, half stood against his pulpit, his head upon one hand, his eyes gleaming over the multitude and his mind apparently reviewing the wonderful crusade almost completed. There stood beside him Major Cole, the veteran aide of the late Dwight Moody, his arms extended in benediction over the responding throng. Cole had asked all who believed implicitly what the words meant to repeat them. It was a testimonial to the achievement of Sunday which visibly affected him.

"Thank God!" muttered Sunday. "As the echo of the tremendous chorus of testimony died in the tabernacle rafters the voice of the great male choir burst forth with the strains of 'All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name' and the multitude took up the inspiring hymn."

"Fitted for the researches of a great psychologist was the meeting for men at the 'Billy' Sunday tabernacle yesterday afternoon, with its heterogeneous mixture of sorrow and mirth, tears and laughter, ridicule and commendation, as the painful duty of tearing and rending the ties of friendship was started. Never before in Pittsburg had Sunday preached in such a manner, and pleaded as he did at that last of his men's meetings. He was a tireless marvel of physical endurance."

ENGAGE IN WOLF HUNT.

Saturday morning about thirty men of the Alexander neighborhood, some on horseback and others in sleds, engaged in a wolf hunt, but returned late Saturday afternoon without any game. Nothing was seen of a wolf until about noon, when two were found at Marion Zachary's farm, north of Orleans, and the men and dogs gave chase. Only once did they come within range of the fleeing animals and then were able to shoot only one of them. When they approached the wounded animal it quickly arose and succeeded in eluding the dogs.

The very best and highest quality of candy making materials without adulteration enter into the making of these famous candies. This is all hand moulded and dipped into these pure, wholesome and refreshing confections that have become famous throughout the length and breadth of the land.

Martha Washington candies are different from Candies most folks know. The methods and formulas of the regular factory have no place here. The commercial spirit that prevails where things are made on a large scale is foreign to the thoughts of this quaint place. The Candies are simple and wholesome. Every box made up is of importance and has had individual attention. The home-made feature Martha Washington Candies everywhere prevails. This is true of even the way the candies are packed. There is none of the gaudiness of the shop but just a simple beauty about the box that gives one a sense that it contains something of real worth.

GRANITE CITY WINS CHAMPIONSHIP HONOR IN BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

cheering the crowd was about divided and neither team could complain of the hearty support given. The players gave evidence that they realized the meaning of the outcome of the last game. After playing strenuously for 20 minutes, the score stood 15 to 11 in favor of Granite City. It was a lead, however, that Springfield never overcame. About seven minutes before the contest ended Coach Merriman took English out, who received a slight injury and put in Turnbull. He seemed to put more ginger into his team and it looked for a minute or two as though Springfield was going to win out, but fate was against them. The playing of Granite City was superb and they fought stubbornly for the honors. They had one advantage over the Springfield men, in that they were fresher, having only played four games during the tournament while Springfield had played seven. The long grind was Springfield's downfall, although their wonderful endurance showed the splendid training they had received at the hands of Coach Merriman.

STATEMENT FROM

TOURNEY OFFICIALS.
When asked about the tournament last night Officials R. M. Tenney and W. H. Duert of Decatur said: "If there was any other tournament held in the state which beat the Jacksonville one they'll have to go some. We were impressed by the hearty support the student body gave and of the excellent make-up of the audience and their consideration. The support of the management gave us in our official capacity was very much appreciated. Eliminating the games played the first day, those yesterday and Saturday were close and exciting enough for anyone and would be hard to duplicate and especially was the championship game a clean one. We enjoyed our work here and, barring the fact that it is hard to please everyone we hope the people in general were satisfied."

FIRST RECITAL IN NEW VICTROLA HALL.

First Recital Given in Johnson's Victrola Hall.

The inlatory recital in J. Bart Johnson's new Victrola hall was given Saturday afternoon before a music-loving audience of considerable size. The hall is located directly over the music store of Mr. Johnson on the south side of the square and is excellently equipped for this innovation in musical performances. The surroundings are restful and the acoustic properties are of a high order. At the performance Saturday each person was provided with a catalog, enabling him to know the name and author of each selection. The numbers included Caruso as well as some of the modern masters of instrumental music and a number of the better known singers of today.

CATTLE WANDER FROM FIELDS.

James T. Holmes of the Orleans neighborhood, who was in Jacksonville Saturday, brought to attention still another trouble from the big snow storm, which farmers and stockmen have had. He said that in many cases the snow drifted along the fences and then was frozen over in such a way that cattle could easily climb over fence or hedge, as the case might be. Farmers in this locality have found it practically impossible to keep their stock at home.

STOPPED AT CROSSING.

The south bound C. & A. yesterday morning stopped at Strawn's crossing and brought about thirty-five residents of the vicinity to Jacksonville. The C. & A. train made no stops at Strawn's crossing ordinarily, but did so this time on account of the extreme bad condition of the roads.

The dinner given by the Morgan County Bar association at the Colonial Inn was an occasion of more than usual enjoyment and profit. It was a gathering of men of more than the ordinary average of education and intelligence, representing almost every political organization. There were there members of every church and denomination, as well as men who were skeptical, unbelievers, without faith in church organization. Such a gathering would have been impossible only a few years ago. It illustrates the changing conditions in the life, social and political, of the people of the entire country. Only a few years ago it would have been impossible for a man, even of Judge Humphrey's standing, to have enunciated the truth as he sees it, without exciting rancor and political feeling.

His talk regarding the supreme court, their decision based on the constitution of the United States, of their unpopularity at the time they were rendered, and the fact that the years that have passed have emphasized the wisdom of their course was an instructive one—that should have been heard by a greater number of people. His conclusions were that a great danger, at this time, was a clamor for change—a great number of people crying for changes in our constitution—a document that the years have shown to be equal to every emergency of importance that has come before the courts, a document that even in the days of the civil war, days of bloodshed and dissension, was reaffirmed and adopted as their own by the seceding or confederate states.

That such a speech could have been made, before such a body of men, of all ages and creeds and political opinion, and received such marks of approval, seemed an indication that men whose life study has been the law and its administration, approved the warning voiced by the judge, that a danger to the best interests of this country as a whole, lies in irresponsible legislation by men ignorant of the guarantees vouchsafed by the present constitution of the United States. The warning given by Judge Humphrey was not intended or taken in a partisan sense, or as criticism of either Democratic or Republican parties, but as showing that the average legislator might easily be crowded off his feet by a popular cry; might, in his endeavor to voice what he deemed the demand of his constituents, be induced to introduce and vote for measures that in his own heart he believes to be dangerous. The average officeholder, in other words, is thinking more of securing votes for re-election than he is of the permanent good of the country as a whole.

That such a representative body of men should have listened to the statement of Judge Humphrey with such evidence of quiet, earnest approval is an assurance that the people of to-day will, after a period of unrest and desire for change, settle to an affirmation of the good old doctrine of faith in law founded on the constitution, and belief in the honesty of purpose of the judges representing the high courts of our country.

Out of 25,500 physicians in Great Britain 20,000 are now enrolled under the medical benefit provision of Lloyd George's national insurance act. Last year they divided among them nearly $23,000,000 from the government. Each doctor averaged an addition of $1,150 to his income. Much of the opposition from the medical profession has disappeared, and thousands of poor people who formerly went without medical care have been helped.

A SUNDAY MORNING THOUGHT.

"The church not only furnishes the morals for the men inside the church, but to a large extent it furnishes the morals for the men outside of the church," says William J. Bryan. It is of no use for church members to lament the degeneracy of the world; it is their part to leave the world, to improve its thinking.

CARRANZA NOT AWED BY BRYAN

The reply of General V. Carranza, "Supreme Chief of the Constitutionalist Army," of Mexico, to Secretary Bryan's inquiry about the Benton affair, would be read with amusement were it not for the serious nature of the underlying incident. With all the pomp and splendor of manner which an old world monarch might, with some propriety assume, Carranza practically tells the honorable secretary of state to "go to." The Mexican general says that he will report on the Benton death to England since Benton was a British subject, evidently overlooking the fact that England desires the United States to supply some details of the affair.

WHERE WOMEN HAVE VOTED LONGEST.

(New York Evening Post.) What are the states with equal suffrage doing in law making? It is a question often asked. Here's part of the answer from the state which has had woman suffrage longest—Wyoming—since 1869 laws made not by women nor by men alone, but since both have voted together.

A PRAYER AND A WILL.

A will just filed in Chicago disposing of an estate worth $8,000 begins with these lines, from that prayer repeated for centuries perhaps, by childish lips—

"Now I lay me down to sleep.

"I pray the Lord my soul to keep;

If I should die before I wake, and then the document goes on to outline the bequests made.

An odd document, it is by comparison with the usual legal forms, yet its provisions are very clear. And there is something wonderfully appropriate too about those opening lines when one thinks of it. The usual will begins "In the name of God, Amen," but in the new found phraseology, the adaptation of the nursery prayer, there is something more than compliance with a legal form. There is sentiment and feeling and the evidence that the testator, possibly plain and simple minded, was writing out the absolute wishes of his heart, realizing as he did so that there might be no dawning of the morrow. It would be difficult to break that will.

Morning Noises

BY WALT MASON

At early morn one's sleep seems best, and man would get all kinds of rest, if silence would obtain; but at the first faint peep of day the world wakes up and gets too gay and beds are all in vain. In town the milk man comes along and makes a racket with his gong, while drowsy people swear; and wagons rattle through the streets, and newsboys shriek the morning sheets, and noise is everywhere. And so the man who fain would sleep just hands out curses large and deep, and sighs: 'I'll leave the town; I'll seek the quiet countryside, where man, when tired and heavy eyed, can hold some slumber down.' So to some bosky dell he speeds, convinced 'till answer all his needs, and with a farmer boards, and in the morn, when dawn is gray, he hears the hoot and grunt and bray of all the barnyard hordes. The cows are bawling passing well, the frisky mules rear up and yell, the porkers voice their woe; the goats, the guinea hens, the geese get busy and disturb the peace, the bughouse roosters crow. And in the dawning, cold and bleak, the victim swears in French and Greek, in Gaelic and low Dutch; he swears in dead and living tongues, and, though he wears out both his lungs, it doesn't help him much.

TRIED FOR SLAYING FATHER.

Media, Pa., Feb. 28.—The John Lee murder trial promises to attract wide attention at the March term of court, which convenes here next week. Lee is alleged to have killed his father, Thomas Lee, a former tax collector and prominent politician of Philadelphia. The elder Lee was shot and killed at Essington, on November 10, during a quarrel. The defense will be that the father drew a revolver, which was exploded when young Lee tried to take it away from him.

TIMES PRESENTS ARGUMENTS FOR JUDGE BALDWIN.

The press of Morgan county has never been more united on any proposition than it has in the endorsement it has given Judge F. E. Baldwin in his candidacy to succeed Judge O. P. Thompson as one of the Circuit Judges of the seventh district. Judge Baldwin is Morgan county's one chance to retain a resident circuit judge.

The papers of the county appreciate the importance of having a resident judge, they believe Judge Baldwin is qualified by training, temperament and character for the place. Because of this the press of the county has given him unanimous endorsement. Editor Luttrell of the Franklin Times in his last issue takes the following view of the importance of a resident Circuit Judge for Morgan county:

"Since the resignation of Judge Owen P. Thompson, to become a member of the state utilities board, residents of Morgan county having business in the circuit court, have had ample evidence of the inconvenience of having no resident judge on the bench in Jacksonville. Important cases have been delayed nearly two months.

"Here in Franklin we have heard citizens bewailing the fact that at the last election a justice of the peace living four miles in the country was elected. Having within easy reach a circuit judge is a matter of far more importance.

"Democrats of Morgan county are offering Judge F. E. Baldwin to fill the unexpired term of Judge Thompson. While a young man Mr. Baldwin has had nearly twenty years experience in our courts, and has fully filled the office of county judge in Morgan county. He is well qualified to succeed Judge Thompson on the circuit bench.

"It is a significant fact that the official republican paper of the county realizes the importance of having a resident circuit judge, and knowing that a democrat will be chosen, is openly supporting the candidacy of Judge Baldwin and has thrown its influence on the balance in his behalf. The primaries will be held on March 24th, a time when the farmers of the county will be turning their attention to spring work, and there is danger that many of them may fail to vote. Should this be the case Mr. Baldwin's opponent for the nomination, whose home is in Carrollton, may be selected, and, too late, the democrats of the county bewail the fact that they failed to realize the importance of the primary and did not turn out to register a vote for Morgan county's candidate."

The fact is he was riding a roughly shod horse and the animal stuck in a drift and floundered to his knees and as he suddenly reared up the horn of the saddle struck Mr. Watson a fearful blow in his forehead knocking him prostrate in the snow and making a wound which bled profusely. He gathered himself up, rode on to the town, cleaned up and was all right with some pain in his head. Joseph Drake of Prentice was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Co-operation in Nature.

"Help one another," the snowflakes said, As they huddled down, in their fleecy bed.

"One of us here would not be felt; 'One of us here would quickly melt; But I'll help you and you help me, And then, what a big white drift we'll be."

"Help one another," the dew-drop cried, Seeing another drop, close to its side;

"The warm south breeze would dry me away, And I should be gone ere noon today; But I'll help you and you help me, And we'll make a brook run to the sea."

"Help one another," a grain of sand said to another, just at hand; "The wind may carry me over the sea, And then, O what will become of me; But come my brother, give me your hand, We'll build a mountain, and there we'll stand."

"Help each other" Jacksonville citizens said, At Get-Together meetings to forge ahead.

We'll go out on the morrow and sound the keynote, To trade always at home and make knockers the goats."

We'll all pull together and work with a will, And we'll keep Jacksonville moving right straight up the hill, And with true co-operation our serious vow We'll make Jacksonville better by "Doing it now."

And so the snowflakes grew to drifts, The drops of dew to rivers, The grains of sand to snow capped peaks, While us, we grew to "Givers." A Good Lesson for the Retailer.

In an address delivered by Mr. Curtis Johnson, before the Illinois Retail Hardware Merchants Convention at Springfield, 1913, one of the emphasized points which was directed against the common practices of the retailer was this:

"Before I pass the bookkeeper position, I want to tell you that if you are not hiring a bookkeeper you are not earning more than that bookkeeper's salary while you are doing that kind of work. While the bookkeeper would be scratching on these books you could be scratching up prospects for new trade. It only takes four or five sales a month to pay for him and instead your volume of business has increased from $30,000 to what it should be $50,000."

Some Interesting Information.

Few people realize the great amount of freight shipped in and out of Jacksonville on the four railroads. We some times fail to take into account our industries, large and small, that so consistently contribute to our general welfare.

The following are the figures compiled by our office:

Monthly Average.

Car loads outbound 159
Car loads inbound 553

Total
Less car loads carload shipments 441
Total average—1,153 cars.

Approximate annual average 13,836 car loads or 161 train loads of merchandise brought in and shipped out of Jacksonville.

The Advantages of an Agricultural Education.

Some interesting results have been obtained by the Agricultural Department at Washington. From a careful investigation made of the income of two hundred and seventy-three farmers who owned farms scattered through the Corn Belt it was proven that the income of the farmer with a high school education was double that of the man with only a common school education. The average labor income of the owner without going to school was only $386.00 while that of the average tenant with a high school education was $1,268 and the one with a college education, $1,721.

The bulletin with this data shows that the poorest incomes were made by men twenty-eight years old when they became farmers. Few men grow rich fast unless it be through a phenomenal rise in the value of land. The successful farmer who expects a comfortable living is the man who must not be afraid of work.

Farming land valued such as Morgan county land means that it requires skillful management, knowledge of the scientific treatment of the soil and close application to work.

If We'll Play Together, We'll Work Together.

Local people never have shown greater interest in the work of the high school than during the past Tournament Week. Judging from the enthusiastic loyalties who have crowded the Armory they are providing a courteous reception for many of the Jacksonville high school guests. Twenty-three teams were entered in the Jacksonville tournament. Two did not come and two were sent to Peoria because there were not enough for a contest there. Nineteen ball teams coming from all over western Illinois speaks in mighty line terms of their energetic host and hostesses.

These assemblages are great for our local colleges, and why they do not avail themselves of the opportunity to make themselves stronger with those fine athletic college prospects is a deep concern of the business interests of Jacksonville. Not that their entertainment has not been good but nothing is so good that it cannot be made better. Now let our citizens and our colleges boost for this state tournament for Jacksonville.

FEDERAL LEAGUE DIVIDES ITS 210 BALL PLAYERS

"Outlaw" League Promoters Plan
Final Raid on Rivals—Want Seven of World Tourists.

Chicago, Feb. 28.—The Federal League today divided its 210 ball players; made preliminary raids for its pennant race and organized a final raid on its rivals—the raid planned to land in its ranks seven of the players now finishing their trip around the world with the Giants and White Sox. This was announced tonight when the club owners of the "outlaw" league took a brief recess after a meeting that lasted all day and threatened to last over Sunday. The managers of seven teams met first and showed their list of players. Otto Knabe, manager of Baltimore, was ill and forced to stay at home. Later the club owners met with the managers and then went into secret session. All efforts to get from managers or magnates the names of the players involved in trades failed. No list was given out but a complete roster was promised the public next week. Twenty-five "stars" who had not been connected with any club but signed by President Gilmore, "for the league" were awarded to teams in need of them.

The managers' session was peaceful, according to their statements afterward and no grades were made without trouble. Some of the leaders did not get all they wanted and others were disappointed at the losing of one or two men they thought they were sure of. Manager Tinker said he had lost three men, one of whom he had hoped especially to keep, but said he had retained Zeider, who was wanted by Brooklyn. Other managers made similar statements. There are seven ball players on the world tour who are wanted by the Federals and next week a crowd of the new league leaders, headed by President Gilmore, will be at the pier at New York to meet them when they land. The players are Tris Speaker of the Boston Americans; Sam Crawford of Detroit, who is wanted to manage the Brooklyn team; Catcher Wingo, St. Louis Nationals; Lee Magee, St. Louis Nationals; Mike Doolan, the Philadelphia National shortstop; Outfielder Evans, St. Louis Nationals and Pitcher Leverenz of the St. Louis Americans. President Gilmore does not believe the efforts of his league to get some of these men will be fruitless as he expects to offer them inducements they can hardly resist, he said.

Two other well known ball players—Christy Mathewson of the Giants and Hal Chase of the White Sox—were mentioned today as possible Federal League players, but Chase's demands were considered too exorbitant when the league sounded him some time ago, it was said, and Mathewson's reply to the offer made by R. B. Ward of Brooklyn will not be forthcoming until after he gives Manager McGraw a chance to make a bid to retain his services.

Many Colleges Represented.
New York, Feb. 28.—Twenty-one colleges were represented at the annual meeting of the intercollegiate association of amateur athletes of America which was held here today. The most important matter decided during the session was the selection of the Harvard stadium at Cambridge, Mass., as the place where the annual track and field championships will be held on May 29th and 30th, this year.

Hal Chase "Missing."
San Jose, Cal., Feb. 28.—Hal Chase of the Chicago Americans was missing from his accustomed haunts today but friends of his were responsible for the statement that he had received an offer of three year contract from the Federal League with a material raise of salary and the money in escrow for three years.
Chase has not yet joined the White Sox at Paso Robles and his friends said he might not do so unless the Federal League terms were met. Chase did not meet the team when it was in San Jose and has not visited the training quarters at Paso Robles. He will not play in the practice game scheduled for tomorrow.

STRAY TOPICS FROM OLD NEW YORK

New York, Feb. 28.—A new dance, known as the "Charivari," has been brought over from Europe by returning tourists and is expected soon to figure on ball programs in this city. The dance begins with a minuet, changes shortly to a "rag" full of life and go, passes then to a waltz or figure Boston, and finally ends in a simplified form of maxixe. The "Charivari" steps are said to be so simple that they can be learned in two or three lessons, but enough thought is required to keep the dancer on the alert the whole time.

Officers of the transatlantic liners report the month now ended to have been one of the worst they have experienced in years. It has been a month of severe cold and almost continuous storms. Every ship arriving from Europe has come in from three days to a week or more behind her scheduled time. After reaching the docks the passengers have lost no time in scrambling ashore and few have appeared elated over having had several days' extra board and lodging at the expense of the steamship lines. One veteran captain who brought his ice coated liner into port this week declared the weather had been the worst he had ever experienced in the 35 years he had been at sea.

The department of health is about to begin a campaign against the free lunch counter because of its alleged tendency to spread disease. The free lunch is such a firmly established institution in this city that no attempt will be made to abolish it. But efforts will be made to improve the methods of dispensing the pretzels, bits of cheese and "hot dogs" to the saloon patrons. The public health officials declare the common barroom fork to be the greatest menace to health. These forks usually rest in a glass jar water between attacks on the lunch. In an examination recently undertaken disease germs were found on nearly every fork examined. The saloon proprietors will probably be required to prepare the free lunch in individual portions or to furnish each customer with a separate plate and fork.

For the first time in the history of Bellevue hospital, women have qualified to become ambulance doctors. Two young women doctors from the Cornell medical school have passed the examinations and it is now up to the board of trustees of the hospital whether they shall become full fledged internes. The position carries no salary with it, but the city provides full maintenance and the positions are generally sought by young doctors for the sake of the practice which it gives. In the case of the two young women the board of trustees may see fit to exercise its right to reject any applicants, especially since there is some question about quarters for the women doctors, as the hospital has no room fitted for them.

The first national efficiency exposition and conference is to be held in the Grand Central Palace early in April under the auspices of the Efficiency Society, Incorporated. The exhibits will show the increasing application of scientific methods to modern conditions, and there will be assembled displays of appliances, methods, and products in the fields of industrial, mechanical, governmental, educational, and household efficiency. Special invitations to participate in the conferences to be held during the exposition will be issued to state and municipal officials, heads of colleges and universities, scientific organizations and authorities on efficiency.

In entering upon a campaign of house construction young Vincent Astor has made a radical departure from the policy pursued for several generations with regard to the Astor holdings in New York reality. It has been the custom of the family to hold fast to every foot of ground it has acquired in the metropolis, but seldom has any of the Astor money gone into building improvements. With some notable exceptions, it has been the rule to let others do the building and for the Astor estate to collect only the ground rents. The present head of the family evidently is of the opinion that it will be a better policy to improve all of the land owned by the family and thereby collect the additional revenue derived from the rents of the stores, dwellings and apartments.

New York hotel keepers, with an eye to the advertising end of their business, frequently engage in a spirited rivalry to secure as guests any member of royalty or other distinguished foreigner who visits these shores. But the announcement that Mohammed Ali Mirza, ex-shah of Persia, is coming over this summer has failed to stir any enthusiasm in the breasts of the bonifaces. The most of them freely admit that they are not desirous of entertaining the ex-shah as a guest. They know little of his personality and have no dislike for him. But they have heard stories concerning his father and predecessor on the Persian throne that are not to their likings as hotel keepers. They are afraid that a visit from the ex-Shah and his suite would cost them more than the advertising would be worth. It is recalled that when the late Shah made tours of Europe he was in the habit of converting his stopping places, whether palace or hotel, in slaughter houses. To satisfy their religious prejudices the Shah and his suite would kill and cook sheep in their sleeping apartments. It is said to have cost a Paris hotel keeper $30,000 to put the apartments in habitable order after the departure of the Shah. Although it is known that Mohammed Ali Mirza is more sophisticated than his predecessors, and is not likely to commit any of the faux pas that made his father's European tours memorable, nevertheless the New York hotel keepers think it safe to take no chances.

William Church Osborn, who is slated for the chairmanship of the Democratic state committee if the reform element gains control of that body, is an experienced politician. He became active in the game before he was out of college. While a Princeton student in 1884 he took an active part in the Cleveland campaign, and in the same year was elected chairman of the Putnam county Democratic committee, the youngest man who ever filled that position. In 1894 Mr. Osborn was an unsuccessful candidate for the state senate in a hopelessly Republican district. He has held appointive office twice. Governor Roosevelt appointed him a member of the state lunacy commission. He held that position for two years. For about one year he was legal adviser to Governor Dix. Mr. Osborn is a man of great wealth and also a man of large affairs. His wife before marriage was Miss Alice Dodge, daughter of William E. Dodge, the millionaire philanthropist. A brother of Mr. Osborn is Prof. Henry Fairfield Osborn, noted scientist and head of the American Museum of Natural History.

STORMY WEATHER REFLECTED IN LIVE STOCK MARKETS

Prices Took Bad Turn in Butcher
Stuff Though Level Is Still High —Commission Firm Advises
Against Shipping Half Fat Cattle.

The weekly live stock letter issued by Alexander, Ward & Conover of Chicago is as follows:

BEEF CATTLE—Monday's official receipts were 22,832. The demand was good and the market strong and active to 10c higher on the good to choice kinds; other grades more freely at a shade better prices than the low point last week. Tuesday's receipts 6,272. The demand was good for Tuesday on the most desirable kinds at steady prices, while other kinds were slow sale at prices not materially different from Monday.

Wednesday's receipts, 12,863, a much lighter run than generally expected; the market strong and active and unevenly higher, mostly 10@15c higher on cattle selling at $8.50 and over; other grades steady. Thursday's receipts, 5,873, but the wire edge was off of the market and the bulk 10@15c lower than Wednesday's best prices. Friday's receipts were estimated at 2,500 and the market steady.

Receipts this week were curtailed to some extent by the blizzard all over the country last Saturday night and Sunday, more especially at the river markets, as their receipts were very light on Monday and Tuesday, but with fairly liberal supplies at those markets on Wednesday and Thursday it perhaps caused the weakness in our market Thursday.

It is very apparent that the country is short of long-fed or matured cattle, and present indications are receipts of that kind will continue short for some time, and it looks as though the demand would continue good enough for that kind, so that they will sell at comparatively high prices. The bulk of the arrivals, continue to come half fat and short fed, and it seems to us that it would pay to make the half-fat cattle fatter before disposing of them, if you have a good place to feed and hogs to follow, especially where there is such a big spread in prices between the well fattened cattle and the half-fed ones, and hogs selling at the prices they are bringing, it will certainly pay for a whole lot of corn the cattle are eating.

STOCKERS AND FEEDERS—There has been a liberal supply of stockers and feeders on hand all week and not much demand. The market has ruled uneven, the strictly choice kinds on the calf or yearling order and the strictly choice feeder feeders selling at steady prices other grades 10@15c lower. Very few sold the fore part of the week, as the snow blockade retarded shipping; but since midweek there has been a freer movement to the country.

BUTCHER STOCK—The butcher trade took a bad turn on Thursday. Reflecting the lower close of Wednesday and getting a narrow packer demand, the trade limped along badly, with some early sales not much worse than last Wednesday, but the bulk of the supply taking 10@15c declines from best levels of the early Wednesday session, and some stuff, particularly medium to good heifers, selling in late rounds at more loss as measured by high spots on outside account in the first rounds. The decline, which was more pronounced on the in-between to right good killing grades of cows and heifers, and in some places not discernible on canner and cutter stuff and a few strictly choice corn-fed beef classes, carried the market down to a barely steady to lower basis than the close last week, most of the stuff grading above cutter and below choice class selling late in the week about 10c lower than a week ago, some heifers at more loss.

The reaction of the market to lower levels indicated the adverse influences of the Lenten season, and killers desire to put the stock values down to a more legitimate basis relative to steers, butcher stuff having sold early this week and late this week on a relatively higher basis than steers.

Bologna bulls below choice heavy grade have taken a flat 25c decline from Monday, only a few strong weights making within 15c of Monday's prices. Some of the commoner light bulls will show nearer a 35c decline from Monday's prices. Butcher bulls will show a 15@25c drop.

The calf market was higher the first three days of the week, but there were a good many vealers in Thursday's run, and as compared with last week's values prices are no more than 25c higher.

ATLANTA BIBLE CONFERENCE.

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 28.—The 16th annual Atlanta Bible conference, which ranks among the most notable religious gatherings of the year, will be opened tomorrow and continued for one week. The conference was established in 1898 by Rev. Len G. Broughton, at that time pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle in this city and now pastor of Christ Church, London. Each succeeding year the conference has increased in interest and importance.

For the sessions this year the services of many clergymen, evangelists and other religious workers of international prominence have been enlisted. Among the scheduled speakers are Dr. G. Campbell Morgan of London, Dr. Russell H. Conwell of Philadelphia, Rev. Mel Trotter of Grand Rapids, Dr. C. M. Coburn of Allegheny college, Rev. William J. Williamson of St. Louis, Rev. T. Nelson Palmer of Winona, Ind., and Ng Pyng Choo of China.

PUPILS HAVE GOOD RECORD

Pupils of Elk Horn school who were neither absent nor tardy during the month of February, are as follows:

George Worrall, Robert Worrall, Edward Bown, Oliver Bown, Eugene Bown, Alonzo Worrall, Allen Bown, Estella Bown, Mary Burns, Marie Worrall, Pearl Angelo, Alice Angelo, Zella Craddock, Margaret Sullivan.

BOURKE COCKRAN IS SIXTY YEARS OLD TODAY.

Once Famous Orator and Politician Now Lives in Comparative Quiet.

New York, Feb. 28.—W. Bourke Cockran, once one of the most widely known men in America but of whom the public has heard very little of late years, celebrated his 60th birthday anniversary today. Five little of late years celebrated his 60th birthday anniversary today. Five years ago Mr. Cockran ended his career in congress and retired to private life. His appearances in public since that time have been very infrequent.

Various causes have been assigned for Mr. Cockran's retirement from public life at an age when most men are in their prime. Some persons have been heard to cite him as a striking example of a man who has failed to fulfill the brilliant promise of his early career. Others have held the opinion that he voluntarily retired from politics and public affairs because he was no longer in sympathy with the leaders and policies of the Democratic party, whose fortunes he had followed since he cast his first vote.

But the intimate friends of Mr. Cockran know that the real reason for his retirement was the state of his health. More than ten years ago his health began to fail and though he remained in congress until five years ago and continued to take a more or less prominent part in the councils of the Democratic party, it was evident that he was rapidly losing his old time vigor of eloquence and action. On the advice of his physicians he declined to be a candidate for re-election when his term in congress expired in 1909. Since then he has spent much of his time in travel. Only recently he returned to New York after a long sojourn abroad. It is said he is in better health now than for some time past and that he has recovered some of his old time energy, but it is doubtful if he ever again enters the political arena.

Mr. Cockran will long be remembered as one of the greatest orators of his generation. When he was at the height of his career he was in great demand as a public speaker. His eloquence was heard in many cities and on many themes. Few who heard him can ever forget the masterly speech he made against the nomination of Grover Cleveland at the Democratic convention in Chicago in 1892.

It was in County Sligo, Ireland, that Mr. Cockran was born 60 years ago today. His parents intended him for the church, and with this end in view he was carefully educated in the schools in his native country, and in his early youth he was sent to a Catholic college in France. At the age of 17 he decided that he was not suited for the church. With scarcely enough money to pay for a week's board, after purchasing his passage, he sailed for America. His first years in the city he spent in teaching school and at the same time studying law. In 1876 he was admitted to the bar. His rise in the profession was rapid. He was taken up by the leaders of the Irving Hall Democracy, and first attracted attention as the spokesman of that organization in the state convention in Albany in 1881. Two years later he entered Tammany Hall and became a prominent worker in that organization. He was first elected to congress in 1888. In the memorable campaign of 1896 he became an advocate of the gold standard and took the stump for McKinley. On the issue of anti-imperialism he returned to the Democratic party four years later and participated in the Bryan campaign. He returned to congress on the Democratic ticket in 1904 and continued to serve until 1909.

Of course you will want that new Spring Suit and Light Top Coat made to your individual measure—made to fit you. And

More especially will you desire it when you fully understand that the cost will be no greater than that demanded for clothing that is made for anybody—manifestly inferior in every respect, and nine times out of ten not the pattern you would select if you had the opportunity of choice from a wide variety of goods in the piece.

Not only will the cost be no more and you be entirely suited as to pattern, but the garment that is made to fit you will retain its shape and look well until it is completely worn out—not so with factory made garments.

We are showing now the very latest patterns for Spring suits, top coats, fancy vests and extra trousers. You are going to buy new garments of this kind, so why not come in now and look over these new patterns and make your selections at your leisure. Easter Sunday is not far away. Start in now, before the rush, and give us more time to study your individual requirements.

SICK TREATED FREE NEXT WEEK

Dr. E. O. Gable, the Neuropathic Specialist, will be at the Hotel Dunlap from 9 a. m. Monday, March 2, until 8 p. m. Wednesday, March 4

HE OFFERS HIS SERVICES FREE TO ALL WHO CALL ON HIM THIS TRIP.

DR. EDWIN O. GABLE

Dr. E. O. Gable, the Neuropathic Specialist of Chicago will be in Jacksonville to treat some cases, Monday, March 2, and finds it necessary to stay until Wednesday night. He has engaged rooms at the Dunlap Hotel and will examine and prescribe for as many people as possible in Jacksonville this trip. He proposes to make examinations and give his services FREE to all sufferers of chronic disease who will call on him this trip.

Dr. Gable's object in doing this is to introduce and explain his new system of treating diseases. He is the author of the Dr. Gable Neuropathic System of treating diseases. This system of treatment is founded on the theory that chronic diseases of body, no matter where located, are caused by some germ or disease deposit settling in that part. This interferes with normal circulation, presses on the nerves and gradually destroys the functions of the organs, causes irritation of the brain and nervous system. He claims that if you can remove this disease deposit, restore circulation and relieve pressure on the nerves, most chronic diseases can be successfully treated, no matter in which organ it is located or how long standing if the treatment is used before the tissues are too badly destroyed.

He has had great success in relieving many old chronic cases where other treatments failed. He absolutely believes that he can relieve almost any case of rheumatism, either acute or chronic. This treatment relieves all curable forms of kidney troubles, bladder trouble, weakness of these organs. It gives almost immediate relief of dyspepsia, indigestion, fermentation, constipation, liver troubles, blood diseases, chronic skin trouble and nervous diseases. He wants every person suffering with any of these diseases to call on him at the hotel this trip. He will be glad to explain fully all about this system of treatment, tell you whether or not in his opinion your case is curable, will give you his services free of charge. If you suffer with any of these troubles you cannot afford to miss this opportunity. Dr. Gable expects to make visits here regularly once a month, and after this trip he will make his regular charges for services to all new patients, but everyone who calls this trip, rich or poor, he will give them every attention. His hours will be from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. He will be at the Hotel from 9 a. m. Monday until 8 p. m., Wednesday, March 4. Ask for Dr. Gable.

CANTON BUSINESS MAN, 20 YEARS STOMACH SUFFERER, FINDS RELIEF

M. Gibson Swiftly Restored by Use of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy.

M. Gibson, a business man of Canton, Ill., for 20 years was a sufferer from stomach disorders. He took many treatments and spent large sums seeking relief.

One day he tried a dose of Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy. The results he sought came at once. He found quick relief. Telling of his experience, he wrote: "Your medicine is the best on earth. I have spent hundreds of dollars on medicine, doctor bills and hospital expenses. I have been sick for twenty years. Since I took your medicine I feel like a young man again."

Letters like that come from stomach sufferers all over the country. Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy produces results. The first dose convinces—no long treatment.

Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy clears the digestive tract of mucoid accretions and poisonous matter. It brings quick relief to sufferers from ailments of the stomach, liver and bowels. Many declare it has saved them from dangerous operations, many are sure it has saved their lives.

Because of the remarkable success of this remedy there are many imitators, so be cautious. Be sure it's MAYR'S. Go to Armstrong's drug store and ask about the wonderful results it has been accomplishing—or send to Geo. H. Mayr, Mfg. Chemist, 154-156 Whiting St., Chicago, Ill., for free book on stomach ailments and many grateful letters from people who have been restored. Any druggist can tell you its wonderful effects.

Fourteenth Successful Year in Jacksonville. Consultation and Examination Free

I treat successfully the cases I undertake and accept no fee from those who are incurable. That is why I continue my visits year after year, while other specialists make only a few visits and cease to return.

IS THIS THE WAY YOU FEEL? Tired in the morning and easily excited? Are you dizzy or nervous? Pain in the head? Tongue coated? Have you Catarrh—nose stopped up? Gas on the stomach? Hands and feet cold? Pain of hands moist? Have you a dull, dragging pain or ache of the body, back or limbs? Have you Rheumatism? Have you Piles—itching or bleeding? Have you kidney or bladder trouble, lame or weak back, pains in back or loins? Have you any blood disease—scrofula, skin eruptions, pimples, bone pains, pale complexion and losing weight?

I invite you to call and investigate the Carson System of the treatment of Chronic Diseases, which I have perfected after fifteen years of experience and study, and you will be convinced that my modern, up to date methods of curing disease are what you need.

Never before has there been a treatment giving such universal satisfaction. Every sufferer is cordially invited to call and secure full details concerning this new treatment free of charge.

REMEMBER DATE OF VISIT. Come early as parlors are always crowded. A friendly call may save you future suffering. It has made life anew to thousands who had been pronounced beyond hope.

C. W. CARSON, M. D., 786 Oakwood Blvd., Chicago, Ill.

Galesburg, Illinois,

To Whom It May Concern:

After having doctored with several doctors in the city, without receiving any relief from a run-down condition due to nervousness and an erratic beating of the heart, I went to Dr. C. W. Carson, the Chicago Specialist, for treatment, in May, 1913.

After taking six monthly treatments, I find that I have gone from 193 pounds to 123 pounds in weight, and my heart beat is normal.

I now feel like my former self once again, due to Dr. Carson's treatment.

MRS. HARLEY KOST.

LITERBERRY.

J. A. Teaney, a lecturer of great power, will be at the Christian church Wednesday night and deliver a lecture on the booze question that you will be glad to hear. Come out.

On last Friday noon, just as we were sitting down to luncheon, a runner came to the front door from Shady Lawn, bearing a tray containing two large dishes of delicious ice cream and two huge slices of Ponce de Leon cake. We mention this to show which way the wind blows in Literberry.

Mrs. Al Ray and daughter, Gertrude, of Virginia, and Mrs. Johnnie Litter of Jacksonville spent Sunday with Al Chapman's family.

On Thursday at 1:30 p. m. a community sale will be held on Broadway, in front of W. E. Murray's store. Bert Olroyd, auctioneer; D. K. McCarty, clerk. This will be the first of a new feature in the way of sales. The whole community will have the privilege of bringing anything into this combination. Terms are cash, but the buyer has a right to make any terms with the seller in regard to this matter. Mr. Olroyd will make a specialty of trying these combination community sales and we believe he will make a success of the business.

Sunday was a bad day for churchgoers and the Sunday school people, out quite a number of adults and children showed their pluck by being at the Baptist church, and it seemed so as that the school was a little better than common. The superintendent, S. H. Crum, was reviewing the school, expecting to make a good point on the duty of attendance. He thought he had the thing where it would be easy for the children to answer the question, "Where should we go on Sundays?" A four year old boy spoke up quick: "To big dinners." Brother Crum did not expect this kind of an answer, but it brought the house down all the same. Then Brother Dickman preached one of his good sermons, which was much appreciated, even though he emphasized the little boy's definition of Sunday duty. His text was on spiritual blindness. Brother Crum requested something special on next Sunday from the No. 2 women's class. Mrs. Earl Rexroat is teacher of this class and it numbers about ten.

ORIENTAL RUG TALK

AT THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

The Orient holds much allurements for most of us, and of all the things coming out of the Orient one of the most fascinating is the rug. The story of how oriental rugs came to find their way into the Occident is interesting. War has always been a mighty factor in their introduction, beginning with the campaigns of Alexander the Great and Darius the Asiatic monarch, when about to wage war against the Greeks or the Romans, went with great pomp, carrying with him his wives, children, and so much of his household effects that his tents were like moving palaces. If the fortunes of war went against him, the victor belongs the spoils, which always included great numbers of magnificent rugs, which were used not only for carpets, but for divans, beds and curtains. Later, as envoys were sent to European courts, they bore with them rich gifts, among which were wonderful rugs. The first oriental rug was sent to the English court in the 16th century and was afterwards spread in front of the altar in Westminster Abbey. Seafaring men have also been largely instrumental in bringing the oriental rug into the Occident. Their beauty and interest has appealed here to the antiquarian, the historian, the craftsman, the art lover and to the housewife. No product of machinery has ever equalled in beauty and indestructibility of these triumphs of handicraft.

Mr. A. Sleyman, who was brought up in the midst of a great rug weaving district, will talk about "the rug of the Orient" at the Library Tuesday evening, March 3rd. He will illustrate his talk with a loom and an native weaver. This will be a great opportunity to learn about the oriental rug, its value and its care; and how to judge it, from one who knows.

Pastor's Aid of 1st Baptist church will have an Easter bazaar and Cafeteria lunch April 3.

HAVE YOU MADE YOUR RETURN

Those persons who are taxable under the law and who have failed to make a report of their income for the nine months ending January 1 last become liable under the law for an amount double their tax and at the same time are subject to a heavy fine. It will be optional with the collectors, however, to grant an extension of a few weeks' time to persons who offer satisfactory proof that they were prevented from making returns by reason of sickness or other unavoidable cause. But in no case will neglect be accepted as an excuse for failure to make the returns.

BULLETIN

of the Playgoing Committee

PLAY—"Romance"

PLAY—"Romance"—A comedy of sentiment by Edward Sheldon, with three acts taking place in the sixties and an epilogue and prologue in the present. Unpublished. Opened in New York in February, 1913.

THEATRE—Princess Theatre, Chicago.

PLOT—In the prologue, an elderly bishop learns that his grandson is about to marry an actress. To convince the young man that he should consider his step, the bishop reveals his own youthful romance. This revelation forms the drama proper, in which the young clergyman loves and wishes to marry a famous opera singer. It is the time-worn situation of the jaded woman suddenly shamed by the evil of her earlier life and inspired to love by the purity and sincerity of that offered her. In the struggle that ensues, the lover forgives what she confesses about her youth, but it is impossible to forgive her when he finds she has been the mistress of his nearest friend. Just as the singer is leaving New York he goes to her room to beg her to save her soul, when the spell of her presence again renews his passion. It is the beauty of the woman's love and the strength of her resolution to lead a better life that sends him from her with the plea to "Please let me be good."

CHARACTER OF APPEAL—It is a play of poetic charm about which hangs the mistiness of older days. This sense is enchanted by the beauty of the stage setting and the presence of the hoop skirts of the sixties. The furnishings and costumes are authentic and the play carries one back in remembrance to the adoring attitude of the American of 1860 towards the great ones of the stage. The whole creates a mood of romantic fancy well sustained and even keyed.

ACTING—All of the cast present a remarkably finished piece of acting, and that of a few members is of rare value. Mr. Chart as Cornelius Van Tuyl presents a somewhat unappealing character, with poise and charm. Miss Keane's portrayal of the opera singer is a triumph. It is convincing and technically excellent. She creates the character of the Italian from the moment she steps on the stage. With variety and grace she holds it, and through the grip of difficult parts, with sincerity and force.

The purpose of this Committee is the support of good drama by inducing attendance, early in an engagement, upon any play on which the Committee issues a bulletin. This official statement of the Drama League is independent of any outside influence. The fact that a bulletin is issued on a play indicates that, because of its artistic merit or the timely and vital nature of its appeal, the Committee deems it worthy of support.

Bulletin No. 2. Oct. 1, 1913. Headquarters: 736 Marquette Building, Chicago.

"Romance" comes to the Grand Opera House Wednesday next.

PARTY AT ARCADIA.

The home of Alex Hall near Arcadia was Thursday night the scene of an enjoyable little gathering. The condition of the roads kept many people at home who expected to be present but those who braved the elements felt well repaid for their efforts. Those there were: William Bourn and family, Miss Celia Lane of near Moredosia, Ray Bourn and family, John Young and family, James Black and family and Alex Hall and family. Refreshments were served.

INDIGESTION OVERCOME

Overcome by Simple Remedy.

Hurried and careless habits of eating, irregular meals and foods that do not harmonize, tend to weaken the digestive organs and result in different forms of stomach trouble.

If you are one of the unfortunate who have drifted into this condition, eat simple foods only, slowly, regularly and take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic.

Mrs. H. J. Smith, Thomasville, Ga., says: "I suffered from a stomach trouble, was tired, worn out and nervous. A friend advised me to take Vinol. My stomach trouble soon disappeared and now I eat heartily and have a perfect digestion and I wish every tired, weak woman could have Vinol, for I never spent any money in my life that did me so much good."

The recovery of Mrs. Smith was due to the combined action of the medicinal elements of the cod's liver—aided by the blood making and strength creating properties of tonic iron, which are contained in Vinol. We will return the purchase money every time Vinol fails to benefit.—Lee P. Allcott, Druggist, Jacksonville, Ill.

UPTURN IN STOCKS IS AT EXPENSE OF THE SHORTS

Gains Among Principal Stocks Are Limited to Fractions—Some Specialties Advance From 1 to 5 Points.

New York, Feb. 28.—The level of quotations was lifted another notch today. It was a slow process among the principal stocks whose gains were limited to fractions and there was a slight reaction just before the close. Some of the specialties, however, advanced from 1 to 5 points.

The upturn was largely at the expense of the shorts. In steel it was evident that selling had been over-extended. Rock Island securities were again weak. The collaterals fell near 2 points, touching 44, as compared with the week's high price of 48. Poin issues of stocks were forced down about a point. Express stocks developed exceptional strength.

The bank statement gave further indication that the currency movement toward New York was abating.

Yell Defiance at Blood Disorders

A Remedy That Has Shown a Most Remarkable Purifying Effect.

At Last You Can Get Rid of Blood Troubles—S. S. S.

The word medicine is one of the most abused in our language. There are certain medicinal properties just as necessary to health as the food we eat. Take, for example, the well-known medicine S. S. S. This famous blood purifier contains medicinal components just as vital and essential to healthy blood as the elements of wheat, meat, fat, and the sugars that make up our daily ration.

As a matter of fact, there is one ingredient in S. S. S. which serves the active purpose of stimulating each cellular part of the body to the healthy and judicious selection of its own essential nutriment. That is why it regenerates the blood supply; why it has such a tremendous influence in overcoming Rheumatism, Catarrh of the Stomach and Intestines, skin eruptions and all blood troubles.

Get a bottle of S. S. S. at any drug store, and in a few days you will not only feel bright and energetic, but you will be the picture of new life. S. S. S. is prepared only in the laboratory of The Swift Specific Co., 219 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., who maintain a very efficient medical department where all who have any blood disorder of a stubborn nature may consult freely.

S. S. S. is sold everywhere by drug stores, department and general stores.

Don't permit anyone to sell you a substitute. Insist upon S. S. S.

SOME CHILDHOOD RECOLLECTIONS OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN

Mrs. Caroline Owsley Brown Tells of Some Early Days in Springfield When the Martyred President was a Conspicuous Figure There.

In a recent issue of The Continent, Mrs. Caroline Owsley Brown, well known to a great many Jacksonville people, gives "A Child's Recollections of the Lincolns." Mrs. Brown, who is the president of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Springfield Presbytery, is a widow of the late C. C. Brown, and a daughter of John Owsley, who built the house on West State street now owned by Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hickey. Her grandfather, Henry Owsley, built Mr. Ensley Moore's residence.

Some paragraphs from the excellent article are given herewith:

One of the clearest recollections of my childhood is of a tall man who sat two seats in front of our family pew in the old First Presbyterian church of Springfield, Ill.; a man with a sad face, but whose eyes could light up with a merry twinkle.

His black frock coat never seemed exactly new and had a queer habit of drawing up in the middle of the back, looking as if it were made for someone else. Mrs. Lincoln, on the contrary, was exquisitely gowned. "Ashes of roses" was a fashionable color of those days and I can remember her coming to church in a silk dress of that shade, whose satin bayadere stripes spread in rich folds over a voluminous hoopskirt. Perhaps I had better explain that a bayadere stripe was one that ran across the width of the silk and had to be matched quite carefully in the cutting of the skirt, or the result was disastrous. But Mrs. Lincoln's was correctly made and I heard it whispered that she was extravagant enough to go to St. Louis for it, instead of letting Miss Van Norstrand, the home dressmaker, "put the scissors in it." The toker was completed by a black lace shawl, pinned on each shoulder by small gold pins. Mrs. Lincoln's smooth, crushed hair was crowned by a white bonnet set off with white plumes. A point lace collar and white ribbons completed a costume which stirred my childish admiration.

Mr. Lincoln was singularly indulgent to his children in an age when children were not usually indulged. I have often heard my father, who played chess frequently with Mr. Lincoln, predict some bad ending for Tad. He said the boy would come into his father's office at dinner time, when Mr. Lincoln and he were in the midst of an exciting game, and insist on his father going home. After he had been put off a few times by the plea, "In a minute, sonny," the young man would knock up the board, scattering kings, queens, castles, knights and pawns on the floor to my father's intense disgust. But Mr. Lincoln would only laugh, and taking the little lad on his back and holding his legs fast start off home with the gentle reproof: "Tad, don't do that again."

I have often heard my husband tell of his examination by Mr. Lincoln for admission to the bar. Mr. Lincoln came into the office where the young aspirant for legal honors sat trembling and asked "Chris, which way does the Mississippi run?" Receiving the stereotyped reply, he concluded: "I consider you qualified to practice law in the state of Illinois. Go set up the boys." The said "set up" consisted of a supper of oysters, as no fresh bivalves could be had in this inland town in that day of slow transit. In justification of both Mr. Lincoln was a law examiner appointed for that year and of my husband's legal knowledge, I will add that he was a student in the office of Mr. Lincoln, who doubtless knew of his fitness.

RED LIGHTS NO LONGER TO SHINE

St. Louis, Feb. 28.—The last vestige of the so-called licensed vice in St. Louis disappears at midnight tonight, which is the time limit fixed by the authorities for the closing of all the remaining disorderly houses in the segregated district. The order closes marks the climax of a reform movement begun here some months ago, at which time it was estimated there were about 250 disorderly resorts running more or less openly in St. Louis.

GIRLS! DRAW A MOIST CLOTH THROUGH HAIR

Try This! Hair Gets Thick, Glossy, Wavy and Beautiful at once—Stops Falling Out. Immediate?—Yes! Certain?—That's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff! cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it.—Adv.

PLAYED HAVOC WITH ROADS

The warm weather of Saturday played havoc with the dragged snow highway, the farmers west of the city had prepared from the Mound south to the Strawn road, a mile and a half east of Point church. The snow was so deep at this place that the neighboring farmers could not clear away the drifts entirely, but packed the way down by means of drags, wagons, sleds and teams, etc., until the road was in good shape so long as the weather remained cold. George Sturdy was driving over it yesterday and had the misfortune to strike a weak place and overturned his rig. The road was closed to traffic Saturday afternoon and will probably not be ready for travel for several days.

PROMINENT IN DAKOTA.

A recent issue of the Dakota Republican of Vermillion, North Dakota describes the visit of two well known politicians of that place. They were Coe I. Crawford, candidate for the senate, and C. C. Caldwell, majority candidate for attorney general. Among other things the paper says: "Of the two speakers we would give Mr. Caldwell credit for making the better impression. His address was devoted to a defense of the present state administration, modestly placing his own interests as a secondary consideration. He took up the matter of the state taxes and the tax commission and discussed these issues from the viewpoint he represents. Mr. Caldwell is a personally attractive and earnest speaker and he holds his audience well by the force of his earnestness. His many former Vermillion friends were glad to meet him while he was there."
Mr. Caldwell is a brother of H. L. Caldwell of this city.

ILLINOIS DRAMATIC CLUB TO PRESENT "AS YOU LIKE IT"

College Organization Will Appear in Shakespearean Role Tuesday Evening at Grand—The Cast of Characters.

The presentation of Shakespeare's "As You Like It" Tuesday evening at the Grand Opera House by the members of the Illinois College Dramatic club promises to be one of the best amateur productions of the season on account both of the ability of those who will take the star roles and the experience of the club in past years with Shakespearean repertoire. Jacksonville playgoers and friends of Illinois college remember the enthusiasm with which "Much Ado About Nothing" was received last year and "Twelfth Night" the year before. As Jannes and Touchstone, Henry Caldwell shows a dramatic quality rarely seen off the stage and Miss Dorothy Worthington as Rosalind is hard to surpass as an amateur performer.

The members of the club participating in the play have their parts well in hand. They have been working a number of weeks under the direction of Prof. John Griffith Ames and Miss Eleanor Capps.

The cast of characters includes Edward Bullard as Orlando and Earl Harmon as Oliver; Edward Alexander, Owen Jones Thomas Mangner, Ernest Alford, Roy Newberry, Durrell Hatfield, Chester Colton, William Kirby and Miss Clara Lane who will play the part of Celia.
